[Synopsis]

Set during the Christmas time, the film starts at Tokyo Station - one of the busiest stations in the world in which a million people pass through daily

Some hoping for a new encounter, some leaving their loved ones, some departing for a new adventure, and some coming home...

Kazuki, whose life is busy with running his web design company, doesn't believe in love anymore. One day, he meets a struggling actress Reiko in a restaurant and treats her arrogantly due to a small misunderstanding. But when he learns that Reiko is not a bad person after all, he wants to make it up to her.

In this film, six separate stories are shown to be interlinked as the film progresses, describing ten main characters who are all hoping to express their hearts to someone.

Will they find their miracle of Christmas?
